INSTRUCTIONS TO FILE A CLAIM UNDER A GUGGENHEIM LIFE ANNUITY CONTRACT

If the following instructions are not clear, or if any special information is desired, please contact our Customer Service Department for assistance. The furnishing of this form does not constitute an admission that there is any insurance in force. Please read the following instructions carefully and comply with them fully.

(1) To make claim under a contract, a Claim Form must be completed and filed with the Company. Regardless of the number of contracts involved, only one form is required from each Beneficiary. List all contract numbers on the form. If there is more than one Beneficiary, each must submit a separate Claim Form. Each must have the signature and telephone number of the witness.

(2) In completing a Claim Form, if the beneficiary's name has been changed by marriage or otherwise, evidence of the marriage or other method of change must be attached to the Claim Form.

(3) A Certificate of Death must be provided. A photocopy of an original death certificate will be accepted. Only one Certificate of Death is required, regardless of the number of contracts or claimants involved.

(4) The contract should accompany the Claim Form, unless previously forwarded. If you are eligible for a Spousal Continuation you should not return the contract. If the contract is enclosed please mark the box titled "Contract is enclosed" on the Claim Form. If the contract is not enclosed or has not been previously forwarded the lost contract statement will apply.

(5) If claim is to be made on behalf of a Trust or an Estate, the Beneficiary Information section should be completed in the name of the Trust or Estate and the Personal Signature section signed by the Trustee and/or Executors. A photocopy of the appointment of the legal administrator or executor by the proper court must accompany the Claim Form if an estate is making the claim.

(6) If there are multiple beneficiaries and any of those named predeceases the contract owner/annuitant, satisfactory proof of death of the deceased beneficiary must accompany the claim form or must be furnished before the claim can be settled. A copy of the Certificate of Death for any such deceased person will be acceptable.

(7) If the claimant is a minor, the Beneficiary Information section must be completed for the minor and the Personal Signature of Beneficiary Section should be signed by a Parent or Guardian. Payment is generally limited to the Guardian for the benefit of the minor. We suggest you consult your legal advisor concerning payments to minors in your state.

(8) If children are designated as a class as beneficiaries, that is, the beneficiaries are not specifically indicated by name in the beneficiary designation, an affidavit listing the name of each child, their date of birth, and social security numbers, will be required.

(9) If you are a spouse who is eligible to continue the existing contract you must designate new beneficiaries. Do not return the contract if you elect Spousal Continuation

(10) You will need to have a new beneficiary named for each Claimant. Room is provided on the claim form. If additional space is needed, please use separate sheet of paper including all the information requested.

(11) Federal Income Tax Withholding Information. You have the option to have Income Taxes withheld from the claim proceeds. If you elect not to have withholding apply to your contract proceeds, or if you do not have enough Federal Income Tax withheld from your contract proceeds, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. Withholding will apply only to the gain included in the proceeds. Therefore, tax liability may be calculated on a figure other than the full amount of the proceeds. Comments regarding the tax aspects of an annuity or life insurance contract are not intended to be all encompassing. Your tax advisor should be consulted on any specific points of interest. A statement of taxable income and total taxes withheld will be provided to you. If no election is made, taxes will be automatically withheld at a rate of 10%.

For some states the Insurance Company must receive authorization from the appropriate state tax or revenue department before a claim payment may be made to certain beneficiaries. Consult your tax advisor regarding the requirements for your state.
